

Customer notice

Dear Customer:

Far East Precious Metal (HK) Limited provides a spot precious metals trading platform, after the client signs all investment-related contracts,

Please pay attention to the following situations:

First, the customer must open an account for himself and have read the contents of the account opening agreement.

Second, the customer has the responsibility to properly keep the account number after opening the account and update and change the password in time to prevent others from stealing.

Third, the customer must be careful to deal with the following matters:

1. Entrust any third party personnel (including immediate family members) to handle deposit, withdrawal and account opening procedures.
2. Any form of commitment by any Introducer to the proceeds or losses of an investment or purchase is the basis for investment decisions.
3. Enter into any form of sharing or sharing agreement with any Introducer regarding profits or losses on Customer's account.
4. Entrust any third party personnel (including immediate family members) to trade the transactions of their accounts.

The company strictly abides by the relevant regulations, prohibits any personnel of the company, and handles the above matters, the above behavior of the customer and any personnel. All are personal acts and the customer is responsible for all consequences.

Market risk, the investment need to be cautious!

Customer signing:

Trading account number:

Date: Year Month Day